Art Unit: 3751

1. Applicant's election of Group I in the reply filed on May 16, 2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-9, 12-14 and 16-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Baker, Rule et al. and applicant's admitted prior art.

Art Unit: 3751

The Baker reference (Fig. 7) discloses a cleaning system comprising: a pump system including a suction inlet 92,98 and an outlet 96; a pool 90 including a return 91, and a bottom and two ends (illustrated); a connection (between 91 and 92); two rotatable (col. 4 lns. 16-25) cleaning heads 129,134; and means 103. Re claims 18 and 19, the choice of number of cleaning heads would appear an obvious choice to be made depending upon the size and shape of the pool. Therefore, Baker teaches all claimed elements except for a specified 180 deg. arc cleaning head.

Although the cleaning heads of the Baker pool system do not include a specified 180 deg. arc, as claimed, attention is directed to the Rule et al. (Rule) reference which discloses an analogous pool system which further includes cleaning heads 20 having a specified 180 deg. arc (col. 2 lns. 58-65). Therefore, in consideration of Rule, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the pool system art to associate a specified 180 deg. arc with the Baker cleaning heads in order to direct debris toward a drain. Re claim 13, an indexing cleaning head capable of being limited to a 180 deg. arc is well known in the indexing nozzle art as acknowledged by applicant as admitted prior art (apa) at page 8 of the instant specification. It would have been obvious to choose such a cleaning head when implementing the teachings of Baker and Rule.

Applicant argues at page 12 of the response filed May 16, 2006 Baker does not suggest other than a 360 deg. arc. However, this argument is moot as shown in the Office action mailed January 07, 2004 (parent application serial no. 10/282,653). Applicant's remaining remarks have been fully considered and either have been previously addressed or are not deemed persuasive in view of the prior art as specifically applied in light of the level of skill in the pertinent art.

4. Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Baker, Rule and apa as applied to claim 14 above, and further in view of Kenna et al.

Although the means of the Baker pool system does not include a programmable control, as claimed, attention is directed to the Kenna et al. (Kenna) reference which discloses an analogous pool system which further includes means 86 having a programmable control 104. Therefore, in consideration of Kenna, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the pool system art to associate a programmable control with the Baker means in order to facilitate pool cleaning.

Applicant failed to address this rejection in the response.

5. Applicant is referred to MPEP 714.02 and 608.01(o) in responding to this Office action.

6. The grounds of rejection have been reconsidered in light of applicant's arguments, but are still deemed to be proper.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the

statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
